Music by - James Tubbritt Leanbh Mo Chroi

Contract of terms & conditions for use.

Thank you for downloading my new Album, and I do sincerely hope you enjoy the music. I'm providing this Album free of charge for your listening pleasure, and I'm also extending the usage of the copyright to include commercial, and non-profit usage as a soundtrack for other types of media.

Terms and conditions apply.

To use this music as apart of a commercial, or non-profit form of media, you must agree and meet the following terms and conditions of use.

- 1: All the music and graphics remain the property and copyright of James Tubbritt. If you agree to all the terms and conditions set out, then I'm giving you permission to use the music for free in all "for profit", and "non-profit" moves, or any form of media that extends to include Credits to the Author of the music. For example, using this music in a Video game, or a Macromedia Flash Presentation.
- 2: You are not allowed to redistribute this material as a soundtrack or in any form that gives people access the raw tracks. For example, mp3 files, or any file format of that kind is forbidden. Your intended use must be as part of a project your working on where the music is not the centre of focus, or in anyway related to providing usable material for others to access and redistribute.
- 3: This music is being presented free of charge, and it must stay this way. If you use the music in game, or a movie and you make profit from that production. Then this is fine, as it will be seen as you making money from your project, and not my music.
- 4: If your usage steps outside the terms and conditions set out, then please do not fill in this form. Contact me first explaining what your intentions are, and we will either come to an agreement, or access will not be granted.
- 5: I'm giving you 2 years of my hard work, and so I wish to be credited for my work in your project. If your project does not have the means of including credits. Then I'm sorry but you do not meet the requirements for usage, and so any attempt to use this music would be considered a breach of copyright, and death with accordingly. The credits that you must include can be formatted as you see fit, so long as they are clear and that they contain the name of the song, my full name (James Tubbritt), and my website <http://www.irishacts.com>. If your using more than one track, then use your discretion to format this information as necessary.
- 6: One form must be completed per project you which to use my music in.
- 7: You must fill in this form and return it to me completed as either a scanned document attached to an email, or by post.
- 8: If you meet and agree to the terms and conditions above, then you do not need to wait for permission from me to use the material. Simply fill out the form and sent it to me. It is actually very likely that I will not contact you if your indented usage of the music is considered normal.
